From Saturday June 27, to Tuesday June 30, 1752.

Petersbourg, June 17.

WE are informed by our last Letters from Moscow, that by the late great Fire which happened in that City, full Two Thirds of it is destroyed. By the Lists which have been sent hither it is confirmed, that upwards of 5000 Houses were burnt to the Ground; and though the greatest Number of these Houses were indeed only built with Wood, and many of them only Hutts and Cabins, yet there are also a great many Stone, and Brick Houses, as well as Manufactures of great Value, which have met with the same Fate. By good Fortune, this Disaster happened in a Part of the Town a little remote from the Court, otherwise it must have prevented the Empress's intended Journey to Moscow.

Genoa, June 17. We learn by our last Letters from Cadiz, that they are equipping in that Port the four Men of War which arrived there lately from the Havanna, in order to their escorting, to a certain Distance, two Register Ships that are preparing to sail for Vera Cruz. By several Letters received here from the Romagna we are informed, that on the 5th Instant a most violent Shock of an Earthquake was felt at Riccia, and in some other Places of that Neighbourhood, but that happily it went off without doing any considerable Damage.

Warsaw, June 20. 'Tis expected the Dietines will shortly assemble in the different Palatinates of this Kingdom, in order to proceed to the Election of Nuncios or Deputies to the general Diet which is to be held at Grodno in the Dutchy of Lithuania towards the End of August next. Count Branicky, Great General of the Crown Army, who went to wait on the King at Fraustadt, and, after his Majesty's Return from thence to Dresden, went to spend some Days at his Seat in the Neighbourhood of Lissa, arrived here on Friday last.

Vienna, June 24. The Empress continues to advance happily in her Pregnancy. On Monday last their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the Princess Charlotte of Lorrain, dined with Prince Lichtenstein at his Seat at Oberguffing; on Wednesday they took the Diversion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Laxembourg; and on Thursday they returned to Schonbrun, from whence her Imperial Majesty does not propose going out any more till after she is brought to Bed. Count Keyserling, who is on the Road hither, in order to replace Count Bestucheff, in Quality of Ambassador from the Empress of Russia to this Court, is now daily expected.

Berlin, June 27. On Saturday last the Court went to Charlottenbourg, to receive the Princess of Hesse Cassel, who arrived there with all her Retinue about Seven o'Clock that Evening, and was most affectionately received by the King, who afterwards presented her to the two Queens and all the Royal Family; and the next Day, being appointed for her Marriage with Prince Henry, the whole Court repaired to the Chapel Royal, where M. Sack, his Majesty's first Chaplain, gave, with great Solemnity, the nuptial Benediction; after which their Majesties, and the new married Couple, received the Compliments of the rest of the Royal Family, and all the Nobility. The Feasts and Rejoycings on this Occasion are to last some Days, during which there will be repeated Discharges of the Cannon; and the grand Fire-work that has been for some Time preparing, will be play'd off.

Hamburg, June 28. By Letters from Stockholm of the 20th Instant we learn, that their Swedish Majesties were gone to the Country Seat of Count Sparr, which lays upon the Borders of the Baltick, not far from the Place where his Majesty intends to embark for Finland; and that the Queen was, after his Majesty's Departure for that Province, to return to Drottningholm. Count Tessin was likewise gone to his Estate lately given him by his Swedish Majesty, in order to pass there the Summer Season; and another ther Senator has taken upon himſelf the Function of Governor to the young Prince Royal. The Marqueſs de Grimaldi, Miniſter Plenipotentiary of the King of Spain, arrived here from Stockholm two Days ago, and intends to continue his Route To-morrow for Hanover. The Biſhop of Lubeck, who has been here ſome Weeks with his Mother the Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein, ſet out from hence on Monday laſt for Eutin, in order, as 'tis ſaid, to avoid the Ceremonies which he was to obſerve upon the Occaſion of the Arrival of the Princeſs of Wolfembuttel, future Queen of Denmark, who paſſed through this City (the Gates having been kept open for that Purpoſe) with all her Attendants, this Night between Ten and Eleven o'Clock for Altona, and was ſaluted by the Cannon from the Ramparts. 'Tis ſaid her Majeſty will remain at Altona for two Days, in order to reſt herſelf from the Fatigue of her Journey; the Magiſtrates of which City have erected a triumphal Arch, with proper Emblems; and there will be Illuminations each Night on that Occaſion. A Deputation from the Senate of this City of Hambourg, will be ſent To-morrow to Altona, to compliment her Majeſty upon her Arrival.

Duſſeldorp, June 30. We learn from Cologne, that on Monday Night laſt they had as violent a Storm of Rain and Hail, accompanied with Thunder and Lightning, as has been remembered for ſome Years paſt; and that the Vines, and other Fruits of the Earth, have ſuffered greatly by it for five or ſix Leagues round that City. According to our laſt Letters from Munich, the Elector of Bavaria, who is confined to his Apartment in the Caſtle of Lichtenbourg, with the Meaſles, was, to all Appearance, when thoſe Letters came from thence, out of Danger, and 'twas hoped would be able to go Abroad again in a few Days.

Hague, July 4. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland are to aſſemble on Wedneſday the 12th Inſtant. Count Dehn, the Daniſh Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, has been in Conference with the Lords of the Regency, and communicated to them the King his Maſter's Marriage with the Princeſs of Brunſwick Wolfembuttel. The Field Marſhal Duke of Brunſwick Wolfembuttel is perfectly recovered from his late Indiſpoſition, and propoſes ſetting out ſhortly for Guelderland, from whence he will proceed to his Government of Bois-le-duc, in order to ſtay ſome Time. M. Straaten has, at the Recommendation of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, had a conſiderable Employment conferred on him in the College of the Admiralty of Amſterdam. M. Boullenger has taken the uſual Oaths before the Council of State, in order to qualify himſelf for Major of the Regiment of Horſe of Orange Friſe, in the Room of M. Humalda, on whom her Royal Highneſs has been pleaſed to confer the Rank of Lieutenant-Colonel of that Regiment. We are aſſured, that the Princeſs Governante and the young Family, intend ſhortly paying a Viſit to her Mother-in-law the Princeſs Dowager of Orange at Dieren, and that her Royal Highneſs propoſes ſtaying there ſome Days.

General Poſt-Office, June 22, 1752.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, publiſhed by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thouſand Caſes) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulſions, Light-headedneſs, and the worſt Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Doſe is generally ſufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewiſe a moſt effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuriſies, Quincies, acute Rheumatiſms, and the Lowneſs of Spirits, and Uneaſineſſes proceeding from ſlow and latent Fevers, which are generally miſtaken for Vapours and Hyſterics; and a ſingle Doſe remarkably ſtops the Progreſs of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Conſequences ariſing from that very common Diſorder, the Source of almoſt all Diſtempers.

This Powder (which is a very ſafe and pleaſant Medicine to take) is ſold only by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-againſt the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doſes, with good Allowance to thoſe who buy it for charitable Uſes, or to ſell again.

* See a Diſſertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Diſtempers, ſold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
